

GOD Time

Day 4

Read Matthew 21:15-16

Week 2

Yesterday, we learned that the church leaders in Jesus' day didn't believe that He was the Son of God. But guess who did recognize Him? That's right, kids. Kids that may have been the same age you are. And what's even cooler is that these kids weren't afraid to praise and worship Jesus in public. While the grown-ups were busy arguing about who Jesus was, the kids were yelling it out for everyone to hear.

Do your friends at school know you believe in Jesus? Write down three things you can do this week to help your friends see who you believe in.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Know that it's okay to tell your friends who Jesus is!

Day 1

Read Luke 3:15-16

Week 2

Have you ever been to a ball game where an announcer called out the player's names over a microphone as everyone clapped and cheered? Were they cheering for the announcer because he pronounced the players' names correctly? No way. The screaming and cheering was for the players, after all, that's who everyone came to see. In this passage we learn that John came to announce or declare that Jesus, that promised Savior, was coming. He knew who Jesus was and He wasn't afraid to announce it to the world!

Think of three words that describe Jesus. Create an introduction for Jesus using these three words before you spend time in prayer.

Thank God for sending John to announce that Jesus was coming!

Day 2

Read Matthew 16:15-17

Week 2

It might seem a little strange that Jesus would ask one of His disciples, one of His own followers, this direct question. After all, if these men had chosen to leave their jobs and families behind to follow Him, you would think they would be sure of who He was. Jesus asked this question and Peter gave the right answer because he truly believed that Jesus was who he claimed to be. Peter knew that Jesus was the son of God, the Christ, who came to save the world.

Use the answer key below to fill in the blanks and then read the phrase aloud.

G_d w_nts _ _ _ t_ s_ _ h_s s_n f_r wh_ h_ _s.

- 1 - A
- 2 - E
- 3 - I
- 4 - O
- 5 - U
- 6 - Y

Ask God to give you courage like Peter to tell others who Jesus really is.

Day 3

Read Matthew 21:14-15

Week 2

It's hard to believe that there were people who met Jesus face to face, who saw Him perform miracles, who heard Him teach and yet still didn't realize who He really was. What's even harder to believe is that the people who SHOULD have recognized Him first, the religious leaders, were the last guys to figure out the truth. These religious leaders just didn't get it. They thought Jesus was a troublemaker and a fraud. And because of their arrogance, they missed seeing Jesus for who He really was, the Savior of the world.

Circle the words that describe Jesus in the word search below. Hint: there are five answers!

S A V I O R F R
E R U L E R B E
A E A L I E H L
B L H E H E L A
I A N R E L U E
T D L I G H T H

Look for ways to show others that you believe Jesus is who He says He is.
